

2018 International Wild Pig Conference

Technical Training Program

Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge

Monday, April 16, 2018

9:00 am	Buses depart hotels
10:45 am	Buses arrive at WMWR
11:00 am	Presentation of animal activated techniques <ul style="list-style-type: none">Snaring wild pigs (10 min.)Continuous catch design (10 min.)Innovations for box traps (15 min.)Corral traps and tactics (15 min.)Silent gate (15 min.)Transitioning to human-activated techniques (15 min.)
12:30 pm	Lunch provided – McAlister’s
1:30 pm	Presentation of human-activated techniques <ul style="list-style-type: none">Portable corral traps (15 min.)Suspended corral traps (15 min.)Drop-nets (15 min.)
2:15 pm	Presentation of shooting techniques <ul style="list-style-type: none">Integrated control and private contracts (15 min.)Judas pigs (10 min.)Aerial gunning (government, 10 min.)Helicopter hog hunts (private, 10 min.)Commercial pig hunting facilities (15 min.)
3:15 pm	Presentation of toxicant research
*2:00 pm	Second set of buses depart hotels for Refuge tour and pig roast

Kaput feral hog bait (15 min.)

Sodium nitrite/Hoggone (15 min.)

Species-specific bait delivery systems (15 min.)

4:00 pm Load buses for tour of Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge

6:00 pm Pig roast and reception - Klein's Catering

8:00 pm Depart for hotels

*2:00 pm

Second set of buses depart hotels for Refuge tour and pig roast